Prizes will be offered for the best lady, gentleman, boy and girl skater; best lady's, gentleman's, girl's and boy's costume and best comic costume. Season tickets will be suspended for the evening, and the price of admission has been placed at 25 cents.

The sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. H. O. Partridge, wife of ex-Councillor Partridge, of Sinituluta, reached town on Thursday last. Reeve Dickson and Councillor Stephens were present at the funeral which was attended largely by sympathetic friends and acquaintances.

The following have been installed officers of the A.O.U.W. for the present year: J. K. Welch, M.W.; Wm. Braithwaite, Foreman; A. J. Gement, recorder; Jas. Wray, secretary; J. Balfour, treasurer; A. Wilson, guide; C. H. Green, L.W.; W. Waite, O.W.

Miss Mary Crawford, teacher of the Kindergarten School, Regina, spent Sunday here and returned on Monday.

Mr. Andross, Touchwood, arrived last week and went home on Wednesday, having visited Winnipeg during the interval.

Word has been received that Mrs. Charles Donycastle, Saltoun, is seriously indisposed.

Spencerville Splashes.

We understand that three new school districts are now formed here, as a sort of educational epidemic has broken out amongst us. Their names from north to south are: Starr's Point, Grassington, St. Paul's. Your correspondent, if present, will send information of the meetings for election of trustees, etc.

The citizens of this district are all up in arms, except the babies that are left howling on the floor, because they complain that since the illness which affected the Progress's patent insides, "The Woman's Story" has been conspicuous by its absence, and the vox populi wish an editorial explanation.

Economy is a thing to be practised but it can be overdone, as was proved in person by a young man who lives in a frame house on the snowy plain. In order to save the woodpile, he calmly and with quiet heroism allowed his feet to freeze while between the soft and woolly blankets.

We wish to know what attraction a genial Scotchman's house on the prairie has had lately for a bachelor who lives in the bluffs and was seen driving like mad in a red jumper; we would wish to warn him against late hours.

The zeal with which the youth of Spencerville are availing themselves of, and their attendance at the night school at Lakeside Cottage, are two facts to be seen and remembered. Keep her humming, boys.

Two young ladies from Edgley were storm-stayed at Willow Grove Farm, the fair and fertile estate of their hostess, Mrs. Musgrove, last week, but two bachelors of this part being in the same plight, everything was lovely.

H. B. Hall, of the Wren's Nest, has, we are sorry to say, been troubled a great deal lately with asthma.

Mayor Strong, of New York, says the Tammany tigers are still in every department of the city government.

OVERWORKING THE LAW.

Forged Affidavits Used in An Attempt to Cancel a Contract.

The Winnipeg Tribune of the 31st ult. has the following: "The U.S. anti-alien labor law was worked rather hard last week, and possibly some of those who by unfair means worked its aid will yet be sorry for it. Mr. A. McConnell, brother of D. S. McConnell, principal of the Qu'Appelle school, was appointed principal of the school at Minto, North Dakota. Some who wished their own friends to occupy the post, hearing that he was a Canadian, by means, it is supposed, of forged affidavits, secured an order for the cancellation of the contract, and for his deportation from the U.S. The order was signed by Secretary of State Carlisle, and the parties most interested accompanied Mr. McConnell to the boundary line at Emerson yesterday. As the school board are unanimous in wishing him to occupy the post, and as he has not violated the law, Mr. McConnell expects to go south in a few days, when the parties who secured the false affidavits will find the climate quite hot enough for them."

COMING OUR WAY.

Amcer of Afghanistan to Visit England via C.P.R.

CALCUTTA, Feb. 1.—Latest advices received from Calcutta say the Amcer of Afghanistan has definitely decided to visit England during the spring if his health continues good. He proposes to go to England via Yokohama and C.P.R. route.

FOUND DEAD.

The Body of J. B. Brunett Found Cold in the Arms of Death.

J. Baptiste Brunette, living with H. Turanne, some miles south of Wolsley, was found dead in Mr. Turanne's house on Monday morning last. Mr. Turanne left him at home all well on Sunday, and on his return on Monday morning found him a corpse. He was never known to have had a day's sickness in his life and was a healthy, robust man. Coroner Molloy was summoned and held an inquest on the body. The jury returned a verdict that deceased came to his death by the visitation of God, heart disease being the cause. Verdict was based on the evidence of Dr. Chas. Smith.

TRIED TO FIRE THE SHOPS.

Deliberate Attempt to Fire the C.P.R. Shops at Winnipeg.

The C.P.R. police are just now investigating what has every appearance of a deliberate attempt to fire the railway workshops at Winnipeg. The facts seem to be these: Last Saturday, an hour after the men in the coach shops had quit work for the day, the special watchman on his rounds thought he smelled burning timber. He could find nothing, however, until calling another man, they discovered the fire to be located under the floor of the shop. An investigation revealed that one of the planks in floor had been pried up, and under it had been inserted a board smeared with oil and grease, this had been ignited and the flooring replaced. How anyone had been able to enter the shop unobserved after the employees left, and how having gained admission, he was able in so short a time to so ingeniously start the fire and escape unnoticed are points that add to the mystery. Of course, had the fire gained headway the results would have been disastrous.—Free Press.

EDITOR DAUBNEY DEAD.

His Form Locked Up in Death's Embrace.

DELOREANE, Man., Feb. 4.—W. H. Daubney, editor of the Deloraine Times, died last evening at 8:30.

Editor Daubney was one of the best known newspaper men in Southern Manitoba, having established his paper, the Times, at Deloraine, early in the '80s. While not a robust man he had been enjoying good health up to a year ago. His death will be generally regretted by the newspaper men of Manitoba and the west.—Free Press.

Blissboro' Etchings.

Had you passed through our town on the evening of the 10th, you would have thought there was a horse fair. Our large public stable was full, and the fences and telephone poles were utilized to tie the horses to, although they did not give much shelter, but people don't think of their horses when we give one of our old time carousals and dances. The cause of it all was a benefit concert for C. DeLo. The programme was varied and entertaining; there were 15 performers, but the one that struck the wails was Mr. J. Hanson's song "Something went wrong with the works." Space will not permit of giving the entire programme. After the concert we put in some time to good advantage with the tea and cakes, and then danced till morning. There was over $40 taken at the door.

The agony is over and we have settled down again till the Dominion elections come off. Our municipal elections are over and we elected four men to stay at home and look after their farms. The people showed their confidence in the coming year. Reeve, W. P. Osler, by acclamation; councillor, S. Mitchell, Jas. Martin, H. Brooks, Thos. Fleming, Alex. Campbell and Jas. Sterling. To stay at home, J. Kennedy, R. J. Campbell, J. Mann and J. Hartell. Some of the defeated men say it was the weather that knocked them out. Better luck next time.

With all the excitement we have had sight of the railroad, but it is hard to go, but whether up or down depends very much on whom you happen to be talking to about it.

Our annual school meeting passed off quietly. Mr. Alex. Martin was re-elected trustee.

Bonus By-Law Beaten.

FORT QU'APPELLE, Feb. 3.—The by-law to bonus the Wolsley and Qu'Appelle railway, Senator Perley's scheme, was defeated on Friday in the Belle Plain district by one vote. Senator Perley was at the polls himself helping the scheme, and during the excitement and heat of argument threw off his coat and went prepared to ferociously back up some of his arguments to Mr. W. J. Gibbons, a well-known and respectable settler of the district, who was not in accord with the Senator's views, but uninterested bystanders prevented an encounter. A number of Mr. Gibbons' friends and other who took part in defeating the by-law met last night and presented Mr. Gibbons with an address and a suitable remembrance of the occasion.

Cataract Relieved in 10 to 60 Minutes.

One short puff of the breath through the Broom, supplied with each bottle of Dr. Agnew's Catarrh Powder, dissolves the mucus over the surface of the nasal passage. Painless and delightful to use, it relieves catarrh and permanently cures Catarrh, Hay Fever, Colds, Headache, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis and Deafness. 60 cents. At C.E. Carberry's.

THE CONTEST ON

Dominion Ministers Appealing to the Electorate For a Return to Power.

Caron and Ives to Speak at a Big Conservative Meeting—Laurier in Toronto.

OTTAWA, Feb. 4.—Sir Adolphe Caron and Hon. Mr. Ives left this morning for a big Conservative meeting in the Eastern townships. There is no longer any doubt that an appeal to the country is being made.

Toronto, Feb. 4.—Hon. Mr. Laurier reached here this morning, and all forenoon was busy receiving a string of callers. He declined to talk on the Manitoba school question, and expressed indignation at the Government's failure either to announce a session or dissolution.

Lorlie Hissings.

Your would-be hard times correspondent grasped at more than he could swallow, or digest, and the result was death, and Joshua passing by showed him under to such a depth that it will, I think, be some time before he has thrown out. Permit me, Mr. Editor, to extend a hearty invitation to your "hard times" correspondent, if the snow-banks in the creek will permit, to visit the Lorlie settlement and see a substantial budget, instead of regarding a second hand bag of trash, meant as a sympathetic dupe, and I am sure Joshua would be pleased to make further his acquaintance.

Your regular correspondent, like the budget, has dabbled for the winter. One fine day, though, he managed to get his head above ground and began to bop, thinking that whilst he slept time had hurried him through into laying. Come, old boy, wake up and behold the season of the year.

Lorlie is now represented through the press by three correspondents, Regular, Hard Times and Joshua, yet public and private dinners, weddings, etc., have passed unnoticed.

Joshua, like the disciple Thomas, is of little faith, he will not believe, neither will he have Joshua, and he is not faithful, but believing.

Local and General

They were often thrown together. Indeed, the times were few, when one was thrown and the other not. From their bicycle built for two.

—There is an outbreak of small-pox at Calgary.

—Mr. J. Love left yesterday on a visit to the ranch, Touchwood Hills.

—An old man named Allen was found frozen to death near Portage la Prairie.

—The by-law to bonus the Wolseley and Qu'Appelle Railway has been defeated.

—Senator Perley and Mr. McDonald, M.P., are addressing meetings in Eastern Assiniboia.

—Mr. J. Doolittle, municipal clerk, who has been indisposed for some time is able to be around again.

—Quite a number of townspeople drove out last night to the Presbyterian social at Mr. James Smith's, Glendel farm.

—A large and successful meeting of Orangemen took place in Wolseley on Tuesday, followed by a banquet in the Wolseley hotel.

—The Prince Albert Board of Trade has issued circulars with the idea of holding a convention at Regina during the Territorial Exhibition on the subject of the Hudson's Bay railway.

—The Vidette announces in its last issue that owing to the death of his brother and the voluminous duties devolving upon him, Mr. Proctor will give up the publication of the Vidette. Mr. W. Kennedy will in future publish the paper, and the liberal patronage of the past is asked to be extended to him in the future.

—The Sir John Thompson memorial fund has not yet reached $12,000. The amount so far collected does not speak very highly for Canadian generosity. "Out of sight, out of mind," is very applicable in the case of Sir John Macdonald or the late Sir John Thompson. In future it would be well to have subscriptions started some months in advance, even if it were only guess work.—Kingston Freeman.

—Mr. W. W. Bruce, of Regina, has purchased from the Wentworth Kennels, Hamilton, the imported bull terrier dog "Murray," by "Napier," ex "Kathleen Mavourneen." "Murray" has won first and gold medal at the Hague in 1892, and was one of the winning kennel at Toronto, March, 1894. He is no doubt the best specimen ever brought into the Territories. He will be shown in Winnipeg in March along with two or three others of Mr. Bruce's kennel.—Standard.

—What might have been attended with serious results happened in connection with the trip of one of our well known commercial travellers and his Jehu, from Fort Qu'Appelle to Qu'Appelle on Monday night last. They left the Fort sometime after dark, and on the way the commercial gentleman fell asleep, and on awakening found himself about two miles from Qu'Appelle, minus his driver, seat and rugs, and the team piloting themselves. He secured the reins and drove the rest of the way into town and reported the loss of his driver. A search party was at once instituted, with the result that the lost driver was found comfortably asleep on the snow, wrapped up in the rugs. It is a mercy that he was not frozen to death; some people have wonderful escapes.

—The Winnipeg Tribune, following the example of the Free Press, has introduced the mechanical typesetter (Rogers typograph) run by electricity, which enables one man to do the work of five or six skilled mechanics. Several thousand printers are out of employment in Boston alone owing to this uncalled for invention. At Carnegie's plant, at Braddock, electricity enables 8 men to do the work of 300 but fails to feed the 292 men thus rendered idle. The Dakota Independent asks "where will it end?" and says: "When the type-setting machine supplants several hundred thousand printers, who reaps the benefit? If the factory hand gets his two cent paper for one cent, does not some invention in his own line make it harder for him to spare the one cent? Under existing social conditions invention and God's forces in nature seem only to be creating idleness and want. Where and how will it all end?"

—Waghorn's Guide for February contains full details of the new C.P.R. time card lately effected, and the changes coming into force on Feb. 10th, and mail changes affected thereby, and alteration of mail stages, new post offices opened, and a list of the Reeves, clerks and treasurers of municipalities in Manitoba and the Northwest for 1895. A table is also given of the agricultural societies and farmers' institutes in the Province, which is of much general interest. A neatly engraved plan of the seats at the Bijou theatre will be useful to enable seats to be booked by those at a distance. The sailings of Atlantic steamships and rates of passage are recorded, county court sittings, Masonic, Oddfellows, Forrester and numerous general tables of more or less interest, with maps of Winnipeg and of the Province.

Shooting a Bull.

Sir Andrew Agnew was "a brave soldier." As commander of the Scots Fusiliers he did gallant service against the pretender in 1745 and subsequently against the French in Flanders. He used to boast that, though he had been in many battles, he had never seen the English defeated. But he himself once came near losing his life in a personal encounter.

Sir Andrew, as laird of a large estate, took great interest in his live stock. One day, while visiting a herd of cattle, he was attacked by a dangerous bull.

Not accustomed to run away, Sir Andrew made such a bad double that he narrowly escaped ending his career then and there. As it was he clambered over the wall just in time to avoid the blow of the battering ram.

Sir Andrew went to the house, using strong language, and soon reappeared, gun in hand. Re-entering the field, he granted out, "Ye had me at a disadvantage, ye Tory, but I'll fight ye fairly now."

The servants, following at a safe distance, begged him not to enter the paddock, where the mad bull was roaring lustily.

"Hoot! I'll fight the loon fairly. The main noise the less fear. But stay ye there if ye please," dryly answered Sir Andrew.

The bull made a rush. Sir Andrew coolly aimed the gun. The bullet did its duty, and the bull fell dead. As the servants crowded round the harness brute, Sir Andrew improved the occasion by saying, "The loon that brags over mickle is never a good fighter."—Youth's Companion.

Robert Louis and His Dog.

When the Stevensons lived at Cannes, an American family made their acquaintance there. One day they went to call. They were met outside the door by a very small dog with a very large bark. The dog planted himself before the door and refused to allow them to enter. At length Mr. Stevenson heard the noise and came to the rescue. When the visitors were seated, the dog placed himself in front of them and barked so loud that conversation became impossible. The husband and wife looked at one another anxiously, and finally Mr. Stevenson carried the dog from the room. It was only to the next room, however. The dog put his nose to the crack of the door and barked as loud as before. Conversation again came to a halt. "He loves us so much," the husband and wife murmured to each other, with apologetic glances at their visitors, and looked so genuinely unhappy that their callers considerably took leave. —New York Commercial Advertiser.

THE MARKETS.

Wheat—The week has been a very disastrous one to the wheat bulls. There has been a constant declining tendency, and one day after another there has been a net loss in prices, as compared with closing prices of the previous day.

Local wheat—This has been a very dull week in wheat locally. With the world's markets declining heavily, buyers would not take hold of Manitoba wheat at the high prices (comparatively speaking) ruling here. On the other hand, the wheat available being limited in quantity and in few hands, holders were inclined to maintain prices regardless of outside influences.

Flour—Locally there is no change. Sales to local trade by millers are made at $1.65 per cwt., and $1.55 bakers, delivered, with large lots at 5c under these figures.

Butter—Market still very dull. About 17c per lb. appears to be about as high as anything is going in dairy, and very good lots could be quoted about 16c.

Cheese—Dealers are selling at 11c per lb. Eggs—Fresh, 18c; lard, 17c; old lard, 12c.

Lard—We quote pure, $1.90 for 20-pound pails and $4.65 for 50-pound pails; compound at $1.75 per 20-pound pail; compound in 3 and 5 pound tins, 56 per case of 60 pounds. Pure leaf lard in 3, 5 and 10 pound tins, quoted at $6.75 per case of 60 pounds.

Poultry.—Prices are lower at 9 to 10c for turkeys dressed, per pound. Ducks, dressed, 8c. lb.; geese 7 to 8c. Chickens, 5 to 7c.

Hay—Loose hay on the street market is selling at about $4 per ton; baled hay, $4 to $4.50 per ton.

Live stock—The local market is very dull for live stock. We quote cattle at from 2 1/2 to 3c live weight; sheep purely nominal at about 2 1/2 to 3c; hogs are being taken by packers at 3 1/2 to 3 3/4c as to quality; car lots of average quality about 3 1/2c.—Winnipeg Commercial.
